Making a Difference for Metropolitan School Districts and Students

“AMSD provides timely information that allows us to take action quickly on important legislative issues. We always know what is happening at the Capitol thanks to AMSD.”

Andrea Cuene, School Board Member, Wayzata School Board

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

AMSD represents more than half of all the public school students in Minnesota. AMSD serves 41 K-12 school districts, 5 intermediate / educational cooperative districts and 2 integration districts.

AMSD PROVIDES

Timely Updates

AMSD understands the importance of providing its members with factual, concise and timely information on key issues affecting public schools. Using Facebook, Twitter, blog posts and regular email updates, AMSD keeps members continuously up-to-date about the progress of the legislative session.

Important Research

AMSD provides in-depth research on education policy issues, ongoing financial analysis of pending legislation and strategic advice and training for local school officials and parent groups. Research is shared through AMSD's monthly newsletter, Connections, as well as at association meetings and an annual policy conference.

Access

AMSD frequently hosts policymakers, legislative leaders, commissioners, and other state officials as guest speakers at AMSD Board of Director meetings. In addition, AMSD members value the opportunity to network with their colleagues and share best practices on a regular basis.

Results

For more than 40 years, AMSD has delivered results for metropolitan school districts and their students. From securing critical funding increases to enhancing local control and easing state mandates, AMSD advocates for state education policy that makes it possible for metropolitan school districts to improve student achievement.

“AMSD speaks with a unified voice at the Legislature to make positive change for our students. We can always count on AMSD to deliver in-depth research and financial analysis on pending legislative proposals to help us make informed decisions.”

*Superintendent Christine Osorio,
North St. Paul-Maplewood-Oakdale*

AMSD is the Voice for Metro Schools & Students

The Association of Metropolitan School Districts (AMSD) is the only education organization in Minnesota whose primary objective is to advocate for and represent the needs of metropolitan school districts. AMSD speaks with a unified voice to make positive change for metro students at the Legislature. The AMSD lobbying team has years of public policy experience and is highly respected at the Capitol. In addition to maintaining strong bipartisan relationships with key legislators, AMSD has close ties with the leadership and staff at the Department of Education and in the Governor's office.

Member districts also count on AMSD to be a strong voice when responding to media reports, submitting opinion pieces and providing districts with one-on-one assistance to communicate with their legislators and communities.

“AMSD offers a respected voice and strong leadership at the Capitol. Through excellent research and counsel, AMSD helps member districts advocate for state policy that recognizes and supports the needs of metropolitan school districts and learners.”
